A Man Called Intrepid by William Stevenson Goodreads

A Man Called Intrepid: The Secret War should be assigned to every high school student in the United States. Not only does it detail how World War II could not have been won without intelligence work and precisely directed underground armies, it is a warning regarding the world today. Author William Stevenson makes clear that Hitler's Third Reich was the first modern terroristic state and it used the latest technology to subdue or annihilate the will of others to defend themselves.
