Learning to Walk in the Dark by Barbara Brown Taylor

I really enjoyed all the research that Barbara put into this book. Organ Cave walk was so interesting. It gave me a whole other perspective on being in the dark and darkness as opposed to being in the light. A welcome read. I had read Barbara's memoir, Leaving Church, which I liked very much. I would like to read her "An Altar in the World" next.

A Walk in the Dark Audiobook by Gianrico Carofiglio

It's always promising in books originally written in another language when there is a harmony between the author and the translator. With audio books, an additional dimension is added when this harmony extends to the narrator as is the case of A Walk In The Dark.
