Adventures of an IT Leader by Robert D Austin Goodreads

Adventures could be fairly criticized for romanticizing the life of a CIO (out of his element, he rises to the occasion, suffers the occasional setback, but marches triumphantly to promotion while winning the admiration of his peers, employees, business hero, and girlfriend!).

The Adventures of an IT Leader Review Part II Steven M

Don t be discouraged by the cover of The Adventures of an IT Leader. The motif is a cross between a Marvel comic book and Japanese animation. I was immediately drawn to the story precisely because of the unique style of the cover. The story also provided a welcome relief from both work and studies.
