Interview Andy Stanley on the Principle of the Path

Stanley: The primary way is to somehow just to keep it front and center in their thinking and remember that every single day this principle is operating in my life, because every single day I am walking down a financial path of some sort, a relational path, a spiritual path, academic or professional path or whatever. Wherever we're moving life is connected, life is dynamic.

The Principle Of The Path by Andy Stanley Extended

Andy Stanley summarizes this passage well: What this verse actually asserts is that God will make the best path obvious. If we trust with all our hearts, refuse to lean into our limited understanding, and submit every aspect of our lives to him, the best path will become unmistakably clear. Divine direction begins with unconditional submission.
