Anne of Avonlea reads like a collection of anecdotes of a village life. It is fluffy and cute, innocent without being preachy and gives one a warm feeling inside. It was also funny - I laughed out loud many times throughout the book.

Anne of Avonlea Book Review Readers Lane

Anne of Avonlea is a weak spot in the series. Not to say that it isn't enjoyable, even necessary, to continuing adventures with Anne. It's just not my favorite. The character seems stuck in a Neverland type of world which was cute as an impressionable child and unbelievable, dare I even say annoying, as a teenager/adult.
