Anthology of Japanese Literature OverDrive

The sweep of Japanese literature in its infinite variety and unusual beauty-from earliest times to the mid-nineteenth century-is the focus of this impressive volume. Every genre and style of Japanese literature, from the somber beauty of Noh plays to the eroticism of seventeenth-century novels is included.

Anthology of Japanese Literature Books Online

This was a landmark anthology when published in the 1950s and is still, I think, regarded as standard reading on many university courses in pre-modern Japanese literature. Keene was, and still is, regarded as one of the leading Western authorities on, and translators of, Japanese literature (many of these translations are his own).
