Aromatherapy for the Healthy Child More Than 300 Natural

Aromatherapy for the Healthy Child has a wealth of information that I feel parents and educators should read. It makes a great deal of sense to approach childhood medical issues from a more holistic, natural point of view rather than the usual chemical processes push upon us via society and others.

Aromatherapy for the Healthy Child by Valerie Ann Worwood

Aromatherapy for the Healthy Child is a vast 316-page book that covers a multitude of aromatherapy uses for children. In Worwood's typical style, she doesn't merely give a recipe or two for particular conditions or issues, but she also provides well-rounded advice that complements her aromatherapy suggestions. Well laid out, detailed information and a nice amount of safety information round out this valuable book.
