Attila the Hun by John Man Goodreads Share book

John Man's Attila the Hun has to be one the best books about Attila out there. The theme of the book is never underestimate your enemies. A perfect example would be is when the Romans suffered a terrible defeat in the Teutoburg Forest of Germany.

Leadership Secrets of Attila the Hun English Edition

As a leadership book, I rated this book as two stars. The reason I rated it so low is that the book has over 200 aphorisms in it that are vague, pretty disconnected from today's world and usually contradict one another. For example, each of them is phrased in terms of what Attila and a Hun should do. On the other hand, at some point, I began to read the book as a satire on leadership books, and I thought it was pretty funny.

Yes, Attila is a fighting fourteen at the end of this. Or sixteen, I forget. In the beginning he was twelve and the Romans and the tall barbarians of Europe took him for seven or eight, because of his Hun stature.
