Brief Interviews with Hideous Men Wikipedia

Brief Interviews with Hideous Men (1999) is a collection of 23 short stories by American writer David Foster Wallace. Four of the stories are entitled "Brief Interviews with Hideous Men" and are presented as transcripts of interviews with male subjects. The interviewer's questions are omitted from the transcripts, rendered merely as "Q." These stories and the rest of the collection are characterized by dark dry humor, alienation, and unconventional sexuality.
