The Holy Bible New Revised Standard Version Catholic

The NEW Revised Standard Version (NRSV) is almost a totally different translation, and contains changes that may not be appreciated by some people. The biggest difference between the NRSV and RSV is the use of "gender-inclusive language". Personally, I don't find this to be a problem, because if the text is meant to include both sexes then the appropriate words should be used to convey this in the translation. Overall, I think this adds to the accuracy of the translation.
