Grilled Chicken Caesar Salad Wrap Recipe EatingWell

This is my go-to recipe for dinner during the week. Easy to make-I make an extra chicken breast when I grill chicken and it is enough for two wraps. When ready to use the extra chicken breast for wraps I slice, wrap in foil, add a couple drops water and warm it on the grill. It is very tasty and full of flavor. It is one of our faves.

Chicken Caesar Salad Wrap Life Tastes Good

I love this Chicken Caesar Salad Wrap. It is so easy to make and I can't think of a better way to eat a salad on-the-go. With tender roasted chicken breast, fresh romaine lettuce leaves, robust Parmesan cheese, and a tangy Caesar dressing all stuffed into a handy spinach wrap, this is one of my favorite lunch options ever. Sometimes I'll even spread some hummus on the wrap before filling it with my Chicken Caesar Salad, but that's another recipe for another day I suppose.

Chicken Caesar Wraps Recipe Taste of Home

I like taking wraps to work for lunch so I didn't mix in the lettuce or croutons but rather put the seasoned chicken on the tortilla then the lettuce and finally the crushed croutons and wrapped it up. The lettuce remained crisp and the croutons remained crunchy. Great recipe for a quick summer supper or tasty lunch. Will definitely be making this again.

Break into bite-size pieces, then toss through the salad along with the chicken. Or halve an avocado, peel, then remove the stone and thickly slice the flesh. Toss with a little lemon juice (this stops it discolouring) and add to the salad just before dressing. Or drain 2 x 185g tins tuna well and flake the fish over the dressed salad.
