City of Bones The Mortal Instruments Book 1 Book Review

The series as a whole explores what makes a family and whether it's OK to hide a big part of yourself away from loved ones, even if it's in the name of protecting them from harm. It also tests the friendship and bravery of teens. And of course, with characters such as half-angels and demons it's good against evil, but there's also a gray area with an evil half-angel and some good vampires and werewolves.
