Comfort Food by Kate Jacobs Goodreads Share book

Disappointing read after her first book, Friday Night Knitting Club, which was so good. I don't want to hurt the author's feelings but I found Comfort Food to have shallow, superficial characters that weren't developed enough. The section with the 60's style "retreat" was just dumb. I will still read her next one coming out, but I sure hope it's better than this one or she's lost a reader.
