Culture of Honor by Danny Silk Escape to Reality

Honor is not something we talk about much in our independence-worshipping culture. Most of us are focused on our private relationships with God and have a hard time recognizing spiritual authority. The result, according to Silk, is that we are cut off from the flow of Heaven (p.75). There are two signs that show we don't get the honoring. (i) We build churches around teachers and pastors and (ii) we think our sin and mistakes are more powerful than God's heart for us.

Culture of Honor bewareful.org

A culture of honor is created when a community learns how to discern and receive people in their God-given identity. In fact, Danny Silk is referring to one of the teachings of the New Apostolic Reformation (NAR). He also cites Ephesians 4:11: So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers.
