RELATED BOOK :

Dance of Shadows Dance of Shadows 1 by Yelena Black

Dance of Shadows had a fantastic premise and decent writing, but the execution ultimately did not live up to the hype. This book had too many plot holes, an inconsistent pacing, and a cast of one-note characters. Even though I enjoyed the world Yelena Black created within the New York Dance Academy, I cannot give this book a recommendation.

The description of this book had me a bit put off as well. "Wasn't the previous book in this series about a copy-cat psycho," I remember thinking to myself. Indeed, the beginning of the Widow story line left me rolling my eyes at the echos of the Wraith story line from 'Dance of Death' (now Dance of Mirrors, which I have not read yet).

Dance of Fire Dance of Shadows 2 by Yelena Black

Dance of Fire is the second installment of the Dance of Shadows series. It was a good book but the first one was a bit better. In this, you are still following Vanessa and her dancing. Yes, demons are still a thing with this ballet company. However, it just doesn't end there. Nope, apparently it's a thing with other companies as well.
