Dead Eyes by Stuart Woods Goodreads Share book

Dead Eyes was entertaining enough, but it did not live up to its potential. The characters were likeable, but Larsen seemed bit of a bumbling detective making what appeared to be amateurish mistakes. There were other issues in the book that had me going what the hell are they thinking. Such as Larson not observing proper gun safety.

Dead Eyes book by Stuart Woods ThriftBooks

This is the 15th Stuart Woods book I have read. I can't believe that anybody who is even a semi-Stuart Woods fan could have put this book down. It is the first Woods book that I read from noon to midnight and could not stop reading it. I grant you, this is not your typical Stuart Woods, but almost a combination of King and Woods.

Amazon de Kundenrezensionen Dead Eyes DEAD EYES BY

Stuart Woods must suffer from multiple personality disorder: brilliant author/hack writer. "Dead Eyes" is a fall from grace from the author of the great "Chiefs." A run-of-the-mill stalker thriller. In fairness, the prose is lean and gets straight to the point.
