The Demon Catchers of Milan is not just a great read - it has successfully conjured a great world, inhabited it with characters you want to meet (or be), and made you wonder how much of that world might just possibly leak in to this one, if we could be so lucky.

The Demon Catchers Of Milan Kat Beyer 9781606843147

The Demon Catchers of Milan was subtle in its hauntingly dark and ominous atmosphere. Descriptions reminiscent of classic horror novels combined with a deliciously teasing air of mystery kept me in suspense for much of the book.

THE DEMON CATCHERS OF MILAN by Kat Beyer Kirkus Reviews

The demons themselves are haunting, multifaceted creatures that are both pathetic and extremely dangerous; the evil they project is complex and pain-ridden. Fortunately Mia demonstrates a strong gift for the family trade, which, like the novel s other elements (the food will have readers salivating), is portrayed in exquisite, affectionate detail.
