Throughout the book, Jesus shows Mary many different cases of why people were sent to hell: there were murderers, witches, adulterers, drug-pushers, and many, many "regular old people" who lived "regular old lives", but who died without turning their lives over to Jesus as Savior and Lord. There were also quite a number of people who had been Christians, and even ministers, who backslid so far as to lose their salvation. In each case, Jesus explained to Mary as to WHY they ended up in hell.

In fact, no one can "prove" that the book of Revelation in the Holy Bible will come true, either, but as Christians we accept it because God said it. If, however, I could have found elements in Mary Baxter's book which were actually CONTRARY to Holy Scripture, then her book would have been proven false. But I haven't.
