Dog Treat Icing Makes Treats Fun Best Dog Treat Recipes

Tips for Decorating Dog Treats. Soft or hard icing - Your choice of icing will depend largely on whether you want your icing to be soft or hard. Soft dog treat icings, like mashed potato icings, usually need to be refrigerated, and they will eventually soften the dog treat. Hard icings like royal dog treat icing, can be packaged for gift giving, and they can be sent through the mail.

Dog Treat Icing Can Make Your Homemade Dog Treats Works of Art

The same guidelines that apply to your homemade treats should apply to the icing as well. For example you will want to avoid making foods poisonous to dogs by being aware of the amount of sugar, salt and other ingredients included in the recipe. However, dog treat frosting is one place where you may choose to use more decadent ingredients.

Royal Icing Recipe for Dog Cookies Best Dog Treat Recipes

If you spread the dog treat icing on a dog treat with a smooth surface, the icing has a tendency to fall off later. Because of this, dog treats made with royal icing on smooth dog treats, cannot be shipped easily. However, it isn't too difficult to solve this problem. Simply use a recipe that gives you a rough surface when the dog treats have been baked.
