Dog Years An Illustrated Book About Mental Health by

Dog Years is a book about depression, but it isn't depressing. It's about learning to live with what ails you, and realizing that you're not alone. There's even some bits that are kinda funny. Although it's a personal story about my own experiences, it's also broad enough that it can be applied to many others.

Summary and book reviews of Dog Years by Mark Doty

Doty offers more than just a simple celebration of the relationship between a man and his dogs, or even between man and dog, delving into the universal themes of life and death, grief and happiness. His style is more philosophical than it is sentimental, merging memoir, poetry and prose into his eulogy for his two dogs.
