The original story is more terrifying than any movie. Count Dracula has extraordinary needs along with mysterious powers that allow him to satisfy them. No one really knows the extent of those powers - or those needs - until it too late. There is nothing funny about the real Count Dracula. Meet him at last.

Audible audio books are hardly ever perfect, with retakes and pick-ups copied badly into the recording. But if the story is sufficiently gripping, you can ignore it. Melville's Moby Dick, which I also purchased greatly suffered from it, but I let it slide. The Dracula recording however took the biscuit.

Dracula Audible Edition Audiobook by Bram Stoker

I love Bram Stokers "Dracula" of which I have many audiobook versions. Personally I find the multiple cast members bring a whole new world to the characters and story pace, rather than a lone narrator. Some of the accents and pronunciations are a little off, but I like the quirkiness and professionalism of this audiobook. http://ebookslibrary.club/Dracula--Audible-Edition-Audiobook--by-Bram-Stoker--.pdf
