E.B. White is an interesting person. I enjoyed "getting inside his head". One reviewer, disappointedly, mentioned that the book is just a bunch of letters and articles. That is true, and at first I was a bit frustrated by this as well. However, by reading on I felt as if I was able to see a truer image of who E.B. White was. I admire his intellect and down to earth spirit. Of course, he loved dogs, as I do. It was fun to share that love with him, through his humorous and well-written pages.
