What Is the Federal Income Tax Rate on a Retirement

For example, in 2014 a married couple was taxed at 10 percent on income up to $18,150. The tax rate increased to 15 percent income from that level up to $73,800, with higher tax rates on higher amounts of income. In some cases, you may have already paid taxes on part of your pension, and that portion of your pension is non-taxable. Consult with your human resources department to see if this pertains to your pension system.
