love in a marriage, such as understanding, affection, compassion, and that most godlike act a person could perform, forgiveness. Love was secondary to any of these. Unless, that is, one lived in novels or romantic movies, where the protagonists were always larger than life and their love nothing short of legend.

Shams of Tabriz's 40 Rules of Love The Vision

What is far more difficult is to love fellow human being with all their imperfections and defects. Remember, one can only know what one is capable of loving. There is no wisdom without love. Unless we learn to love God's creation, we can neither truly love nor truly know God. Rule 16. Real faith is the one inside. The rest simply washes off.

The forty rules of love which is narrated by shams from time to time really maybe just for a while changed my perspective on life and on relations and obviously on GOD. On the other hand it intensified my hatred towards the hypocrite religious people who don't have anything to do with God or the love we bear in our hearts.
