High Voltage Fever 10 by Karen Marie Moning

High Voltage was a different book to what I was expecting. In comparison to the first nine books, which were chock full of mystery, intrigue and blow-you-over plot reveals; High Voltage was much more of a character study, with some HUGE moments serving the character development, but it played out a bit more understated than the previous books.

High voltage Wikipedia

The numerical definition of "high voltage" depends on context. Two factors considered in classifying a voltage as "high voltage" are the possibility of causing a spark in air, and the danger of electric shock by contact or proximity. The definitions may refer to the voltage between two conductors of a system, or between any conductor and ground.

High Voltage Fever Series 10 by Karen Marie Moning

I've been a huge fan of this series from the beginning. Karen Marie Moning is hands-down one of my favorite authors. High Voltage was such a fun read, it broke my heart at times, made me laugh out loud at others, and actually fist pump the air with happiness more than a few times.
