Recommended Reading Hoarding Disorders UK

Compulsive hoarding can make life a misery, affecting health, well-being and lifestyle, and posing a significant risk of fire, illness, infestation and other dangers. Hoarding touches the whole family and, in extreme cases, impinges on basic freedoms, such as space in which to eat, do paperwork or even sleep. Packing with practical advice, Understanding Hoarding aims to help those with hoarding difficulties and those that live with them. It is also a useful resource for friends and professionals.
