Made From Scratch Caramel Apples Recipe Serious Eats

Homemade caramel apples are best with a caramel that's thick enough to generously coat, but soft enough to bite through. [Photograph: Vicky Wasik] To make the best caramel apples at home, you need the right sort of caramel for dipping pale gold, so you can still taste the nuance of your favorite apple, but with plenty of toasty depth and a hint of salt to temper its sweetness.

Carnival Caramel Apples Recipe Taste of Home

I make caramel apples every year and this recipe really has the richest tasting caramel yet! It's really important that you let the caramel boil for several minutes before adding the sweetened milk. Then let it lightly boil after you add the milk until it reaches your desired temp. I didn't quite let it get to 248 because it started browning before then. I made 2 batches and they both turned out wonderful!! Really helped to spray the paper with cooking spray to keep them from sticking too.
