Homemade Tortillas Recipe Taste of Home

No issues with stickiness, just perfect. I love that I can now make my own tortillas and know exactly what's in them. I even tried adding baking powder as many recipes suggest, but the fluffy tortillas just aren't for us. If you like your tortillas thicker, then add a little baking powder (I think I added 1/2 teaspoon).

Homemade Corn Tortillas Mexican Please

If the tortillas are getting singed black spots quickly, then dial down the heat. Ideally each side takes about 1-2 minutes before brown spots start forming. If you don't want to do the 'quick flip' method, then you can simply cook each side of the tortilla for 1-2 minutes, or until brown spots are forming.

Homemade Tortillas Recipe Aaron Sanchez Food Network

Place a dough ball between the plastic rounds and flatten in a tortilla press into a 5-inch circle, about 1/8-inch thick. (If you don't have a tortilla press, use a coffee can to flatten the dough.) Peel off the top piece of plastic; flip the tortilla onto your hand and peel off the bottom piece of plastic.
