How to Make Your Own Candles The Art of Manliness

Candles can truly be very meditative and thought-provoking. The downside, though, is that they're dang expensive. A high-quality 6oz candle can run you $20-$30, and even more if it has a luxury brand name attached to it. So I decided to investigate what it would take to make my own, and if I could replicate those high-quality products for a fraction of the cost.

The 3 Best Ways to Make a Scented Candle in a Glass wikiHow

To make a scented candle in a glass, start by melting some wax in the microwave. Then, pour a drop of hot wax into the bottom of the glass and quickly place a wick in it. After you put the wick in, lay a pencil or toothpick over the rim of the glass and tape the wick to it so it doesn't fall over. Next, mix some essential oils into the melted wax to give it a scent. Finally, pour the scented wax into the glass and let it harden.
