How to write a Spiritual book Gaynor Carrillo

Writing a nonfiction Spiritual book and more so about my own life was like taking my clothes off in a slow striptease knowing soon I would be stepping out naked. I hadn't realised this at first until halfway through the book. But I had to be me and it was time I didn't care what opinions others may have of me. I was doing this because it was important to share my message more than to worry about others personal opinions of me.
