Inner child Wikipedia

The inner child is often characterized as a subpersonality within the framework of psychosynthesis or may also be seen as a central element surrounded by subpersonalities. Virtually every talk therapy approach acknowledges and ascribes some meaning to the inner child, even if they use a different label.

Homecoming Reclaiming and Healing Your Inner Child

Upon recommendation, I've read this book and found that about 90 percent of us need to read it. It focuses on exactly what the title says, reclaiming and rebuilding your inner child. Before reading this book I thought inner child work was a bunch of bull. This book has completely changed my mind and is changing my heart.

Inner Child Healing Techniques Book Content

Inner Child Healing Techniques "When we are reacting out of old tapes based on attitudes and beliefs that are false or distorted, then our feelings cannot be trusted. When we are reacting out of our childhood emotional wounds, then what we are feeling may have very little to do with the situation we are in or with the people with whom we are dealing in the moment.
