The Invention of the Jewish People by Shlomo Sand

"The Invention of the Jewish People" - with a title like that, one might assume that the author is a Holocaust denier, or something like that. No, however, he is himself Jewish (the son of a Jewish mother, at any rate), a professor of history at the University of Tel Aviv. Really, I would say that this book was a case study in nationalism, with modern day Israel as its subject. An interesting introduction to what historians do.
