

JOHN OWEN THE GLORY OF CHRIST

RELATED BOOK :

The Glory of Christ English Edition eBook John Owen

Owen's treatise on the Glory of Christ looks at the substance of Christ person, His office as mediator and savior, and His grace and sufferings as grounds for His glorification. This digital edition contains the original preface and chapters as well as the additional chapters published posthumously in which Owen applies the topic to unconverted sinners and backsliding Christians. The chapters are all carefully formatted and tied together with an active table of contents.

Meditations and Discourses on the Glory of Christ

Owen uses these discourses to expound upon the different types of glory that Christ exhibits: the glory of His love, the glory of His mystery, His glory as mediator, His glory in the church, and the glory of His eternal being. It is through Christ that our lowly nature is sanctified and our relationship with God is ultimately secured. Owen teaches Christians that nothing they do has any meaning outside of that which Christ anoints with His glory.

The Glory of Christ by John Owen Banner of Truth

Owen points us to the glory of Christ: both the fullness of who He is and also the finality of what He has done to accomplish the salvation of His people. It is as we lose sight of this glory that we are prone to sin, he argues, and the solution is to once again turn our gaze upon Christ. An imminently practical and powerful book. Even in abridged form, Owen's treasure remains magisterial and profound.
