My daughters love the Junie B. Jones books. This book in particular has a great storyline. Junie B. is afraid of going on a field trip to a farm, but despite her many attempts to get out of it, she ends up facing her fear and having a greater appreciation for what she initially feared. Very good read. It is a short book comparatively to some others in the series, but still definitely worth owning.

Junie B Jones Has A peep In Her Pocket by Morgan Prezi

Her friends tell her its okay but the boys make fun of her because shes scared of roosters. Once they get there Junie tries to hide under her back pack under the seat! But of course the classmates again yell "Junie is under the seat, shes still on the bus!" So the farmer comes on the bus (with a hat on) and tells her everything would be just fine and she can be the farmers assistant. Which involves bossing people around and sitting on the tractor.
