Lake Wobegon Summer 1956 booksword co uk

Lake Wobegon by Garrison Keillor is a book of pointless nonsense. There is no storyline to this book. I feel as though the book itself is just a collection of memories that has no significant ending or and interesting plots during the book. The book has its few good laughs here and there but there is nothing to keep you hooked. The memories also seem to skip, and not really give the reader
