Junie B First Grader at Last by Barbara Park

I see Junie B. Jones books everywhere and so I picked one up used to see what it was all about. I'm glad I read it before my daughter though because I have decided there are better books out there for her. Junie is really kind of a brat. She has a bad attitude about things (calling them dumb or boring) and even makes fun of other kids in the story. She's nervous about getting glasses, and I know the author isn't trying to say that Junie is an ideal kid. She definitely gets herself into trouble.
