Law 101 Everything You Need to Know about the American

Good as a review or a preview before going to law school. Will give you insight regarding laws and procedures. If you don't know anything about the world of law, this book may be confusing. Good if you sit down and read it, and try to understand what the author is saying (who is clearly very knowledgeable of the nuances of law; he is a law professor).

As an attorney I don't recommend it for the lay person to rely it for a genuine guide to help as an assist to their REAL legal answers, get true legal counsel for that to stay out of legal trouble. REMEMBER it's only a guide, not the LAW & NT everything you need to know, the law is much more complicated than what is in this small book.
