Letters to a Young Scientist Amazon de Edward O

Dr. Wilson's book is advertised as a collection of letters to encourage and advise young scientists. What I got out of it (as a young scientist) was "be passionate, be antisocial, never take breaks, pick your friends, get really lucky". I was hoping to read this to be inspired to continue my PhD aspirations, it neither hurt nor helped me.

Letters to a Young Scientist by Edward O Wilson

"Letters to a Young Scientist" might easily be mistaken as a call for young Americans to take up arms on the scientific battlefield in the fight to conquer the unknown. To be sure, Wilson pushes for a greater understanding of the scientific community by the youth of his homeland. He touches on how misunderstood the sciences have become to both our students and the institutions which teach them.
