Little America by Rob Swigart Goodreads Share book

It's a little Brautigan, a little Tom Robbins and just a nibble of Hunter S. Thompson. It is odd that Swigart never caught on beyond a small cult following. He has all the wit and maybe a little more humanity than some of those more famous writers I mentioned. I received my copy in the late 70s from a writer friend who raved about this book and he was right. I really need to reread it.

Little America Henry Bromell 9780375718915 Amazon com

Little America, I'm pleased to say, is not one of those books. As a Palestinian who grew up in Jordan, hearing, seeing, reading about the Jordan in the 50's, this book seemed to recreate the feelings that such information evoked in me: A sense of faux-nostalgia for a time I had never actually lived.
