Llama Llama and the Bully Goat Book Review

Gilroy Goat spends the morning at school making fun of others, calling names, being mean, and at recess he kicks dirt and sand on Llama and pushes Nelly in the sandbox. Llama tells him, "Gilroy, this is not OK. Stop it, or we'll go away." He and Nelly do walk away and tell the teacher, who gives Gilroy a time-out. The second half of the book shows Gilroy learning from his mistake, learning how to play nicely with others and become their friend.

Dewdney does not portray the Bully Goat in a way that scares kids but even young kids will recognize that Gilroy's behaviour was not okay. She also has Llama Llama and his friend Nelly Gnu stand up to the bully first before going to tell the teacher, which in itself is a very important life lesson.
