The Lost Girls of Rome CRIME FICTION LOVER

This is certainly not the case in this book. Rome is very much present in the story, although perhaps a darker, more unsettling Rome than you might expect, drowning in constant rain and fog.

The Lost Girls of Rome by Donato Carrisi 2012 07 05

I am afraid that the hype on the jacket made me expect another "Girl With the Dragon Tattoo", and this is not that. It might be so popular in Italy because, in my experience from living there, they tend to LOVE anything that reveals devious behavior from the clergy.
