I'm almost not sure what to say. I have cried my way through this book. Wanting to climb into my son's high bed and hold him close. This book is eerily similar to my life.

Love Anthony Book Ottawa Public Library BiblioCommons

I found this book to be slow going in the beginning. There were a lot of women to keep track of, and eventually it all came together. I liked how Beth wrote the story of Anthony in his voice, and really enjoyed how she saw similarities in Anthony and herself.

Love Anthony by Lisa Genova Paperback Barnes Noble

I enjoyed reading "love anthony," the story of how having a child with autism can affect a family, but I did not feel that this book was as strong Genova's other two books. One subplot of a woman writing a book about autism was a stretch to believe.
