Georges Simenon The Belgian Writer's 10 Best Maigret Books

In this novel, like always, it is the character of Inspector Maigret who makes the book, and not the crime itself. Simenon was a genius in creating a multi-faceted man to be discovered with each new book of the collection. Within the novel, Maigret evolves as a real person would and not as a funny caricature like it is more commonly the case with other detectives in extensive collections.
