The Making of the President 1968 by Theodore H White

The Making of the President 1968 is my last book in a series of books by Theodore White. I am really interested in this particular election on two levels. I was twenty-one and that was the legal voting age in 1968. My first national election also had as its vice presidential candidate Hubert Humphrey for my home state of Minnesota.

The Making of the President 1968 by T H White 1969 06

1968 was one of the most tumultuous years in twentieth century America. There was the Tet Offensive in January that, while a military failure for North Vietnam, was a political failure in the United States. There was the assassinations of two loved public figures, Martin Luther King, Jr. and Robert Kennedy. The numerous race riots and street violence that plagued the nation. It was also a Presidential election year.
