As a 1st time Michener reader, I loved Mexico. Michener weaves a story that is at once a tour-de-force of bullfighting, a sweeping panarama of Mexican history, an apologetic of the Mexican psyche for (typically) arrogant North Americans, and an exploration of the purpose of life for a middle aged Mexican-American journalist. It is a credit to Michener's art that he can pull off all that in a seamless and gripping read.

Mexico by James A Michener Goodreads Share book

I enjoyed Mexico by James Michener. His bullfighting characters and descriptions of the bullfights and bullfighting history were great. I also enjoyed the history of Mexico Michener incorporates in his book, but it was hard for me know which characters and events were fictional and which were historically accurate.
