My Heart Is an Idiot Essays by Davy Rothbart

Though most of the essays in My Heart is an Idiot include his propensity towards broken-hearted longing and the chase of some fleeting hope for romantic love, he seems just as enchanted by strangers he meets on buses, in bars, and through happenstance. The greatest strength of these stories is that Davy's interest in the secret heart of other people's lives, regardless of race, class, or pretty much anything else, shines through them.
