Nicola And The Viscount (2004) About book: Read this on my blog! Meg Cabot is my go-to writer when I want something light-hearted and fun. Yeah, I know that her books are cheesy, not particularly well-written and her heroines are all the same: the names and looks may change, but it's always the same pretty-but-not-gorgeous, slightly dorky chick, who doesn't let people walk all over her and has a special talent.

Nicola and the Viscount by Meg Cabot Goodreads

Nicola and the Viscount is an entertaining and quick read, but I was at no point fully invested in the story, neither did I care for the characters all that much. I wish I liked this more, because, come on, Meg Cabot was my childhood, but alas, I found it predictable, with trite characters and plot twists.
