Night of the Hunter Companions Codex I Amazon de R A

Salvatore is at his best here, masterfully bringing several moving parts together. There is even a chapter titled "So Many Moving Parts"! There are some who might complain that there should be more content about the Companions, but I feel he did a marvelous job with the different plots coming together. I personally enjoyed reading about the drow and found it extremely intriguing to read about Lloth's designs.

Night of the Hunter by R A Salvatore Goodreads

Salvatore goes back to his Underdark roots in the dark elf city of Menzoberranzan in Night of the Hunter. There is no short supply of subterfuge and deception by the sinister dark elves. Simply put, lots of cool stuff happens in this book.
