Nine Coaches Waiting by Mary Stewart Goodreads

Nine coaches waiting - hurry-hurry-hurry What a blast from the past. Yes, this book was first published back in 1958. It reads a bit like a NA version of Nancy Drew.. or maybe a cross between Daphne du Maurier and Agatha Christie. Anyway, it s a bit of mystery, and a bit of romance written in a very decadent and descriptive way.

Nine Coaches Waiting Amazon de Mary Stewart B cher

Like several of the reviewers below, I read Nine Coaches Waiting when I was very young - in fact, all of 14 years old. It was the epitome of romance for me then, and in the years since I feel the same. I hope my teenaged nieces read this novel, and any young girl who loves a truly quality romantic suspense story.

Love is not a triangle Nine Coaches Waiting

Nine Coaches Waiting - cleverly named for a poem - has mystery, suspense and a forbidden romance between social classes. I kept thinking of an old movie as I read this book, and I could imagine it clearly as a film (in black and white of course).

Nine Coaches Waiting is structurally different again. This is the Cinderella story, openly acknowledging its great model, treating that model with some astringence, but keeping and humanizing the strong line of the traditional love story.
