How To Make an Orange Julius Recipe Kitchn

An Orange Julius is a blend of frozen orange juice concentrate, milk, vanilla, sugar, and ice. It's not quite a smoothie; it's too sweet more like a dessert to be considered a smoothie. And it's not as milky or thick as a milkshake, either. It's sweet and frothy, lightly frozen, and tastes just like a Creamsicle.

The best Orange Julius copycat recipe Copykat com

Orange Julius is a chain of juice stands that grew out of one orange juice stand opened in Los Angeles in 1926 by Julius Freed. Initial sales were very modest, but in 1929, Freed's real estate broker came up with a drink mix that made the acidic orange juice easier on his stomach. Freed's stand took up this new drink, which had a frothy, creamy texture, and sales took off. It became so

I usually use Simply Orange Juice or orange juice concentrate that has been made up. You could also use freshly squeezed orange juice if you prefer to use fresh orange juice. The real orange Julius are pretty sweet. You could cut back on the sweetener and I have also used honey when trying to make them healthier, but for the closest to the real thing what I have listed in the recipe is what we
